

F A C T S H E E T

Overview

Galaxy Macau is built with Asian pride. It is a place guided by world-class Asian heart where the planet's largest market will feel welcomed, comfortable, and very much at home in Cotai. It is a vision of life as it can be where every moment of the day is heightened and made exceptional. It is grounded in both the mystical and the spiritual. And now it is about to be made real.

Positioning	Galaxy Macau is the only truly authentic Asian five-star resort destination in Macau.
Opening	Early 2011
Investment	Over HK$14 billion
Area	550,000 square meters
Accommodations	Fully integrated destination resort including more than 2,200 rooms, suites and villas across three world-class hotels Award-winning and ultra exclusive Banyan Tree Hotel and Resort Japan's legendary Hotel Okura Highly anticipated five-star Galaxy Hotel
Gaming	More than 600 table games and 1,500 electronic gaming machines divided into five auspiciously themed gaming areas
Facilities	One of the largest leisure complexes in Asia A selection of more than 50 food and beverage outlets catering to the resort's numerous Asian consumers—a combination of specialty, casual and fine dining venues Distinct retail shopping streets offering Asian delights Lush oasis gardens covering 52,000 square meters The world's largest sky wave pool covering 4,000 square meters and featuring a 350-ton white sand beach Five additional individually designed swimming pools
Architect	Simon Kwan & Associates
Key Designers	Goddard Group • LRF Designers Limited • Chhada Siembieda & Associates Steelman Partners • Alan Chan Design
General Contractor	Shanghai Construction Group

